The History of Slavery in the St. Louis Area
The Catholic Church's Involvement and
What We Can Do Now!

Presentation by
Fr. Jeff Harrison, SJ

Fr. Harrison serves as the Pastoral Associate at St. Matthew the Apostle Church in St. Louis Missouri. He is a member of the team Jesuits Slavery, History, Memory and Reconciliation Project working to build relationships with descendants, community members, researchers, Jesuit partners and others to identify the history and descendants of Jesuit-enslaved people in the 19th century United States.
